INDICATIONS ARE THAT TENER WILL HAVE SLIGHT OPPOSITION FOR GOVERNOR

FIELD IS CLEAR SINCE REFUSAL OF KNOX TO RUN

Charleroi People Enthusiasctic Over Prospects of Trip Tuesday to State Capitol

PROGRAM TO BE FOLLOWED

Charleroi is agog with excitement and enthusiasm today over the prospects of Congressman John K. Tener for the Republican nomination for Governor at the State convention at Harrisburg Wednesday. With the collapse of the Knox boom, which Allegheny county politicians weretrying to engineer, Mr. Tener's hances were correspondingly increased, and now he is practically acknowledged to have a clear field. This is emphasized by the flood of telegrams received from leading newspapers of the State for Tener stuff, and the presene of special correspondents in search of information concerning "the next Governor."

When it became known that Secretary Knox positively refused to become a candidate for the nomination for Governor, the scramble for reservations in the special train of Tener boomers which leaves Charleroi tomorrow became intensified. In order to make the necessary arrangements for chartering the train, the requisition had to be made early, and for that reason the committee cannot handle all the applications that are now coming in unless more Pullman cars can be secured. Efforts are being made today with the Pennsylvania Railroad company to secure more coaches if possible. Word has been received that increased delegations from Beaver and Lawrence counties want to join the party at Pittsburg, and efforts are being made to take care of them.

Arrangements have been completed for a big Tener demonstration at Harrisburg headed by the Washington county boomers. Bands, banners, badges, pennants, and red fire will be in evidence together with the Charleroi energy and enthusiasm that accomplishes everything it goes after. The large portrait of John K. Tener which has graced the walls of the Elks' club house in Charleroi has been transformed into a banner, and will be borne in the procession from a carriage drawn by white horses. Handsome badges have been prepared at Washington, D. C., which will be sent by special messenger to Altoona, where they will be delivered to the delegation. The Pullman cars will be decorated on the sides by 50 foot banners, bearing the inscription, "For Governor, John K. Tener," which will flash the candidacy of the Charleroi man all along the route. Large portraits of Mr. Tener will also be displayed at all the car windows.

Monongahela is equally enthused with Charleroi. The large delegation which will attend from that town will have some special features in the parade. In addition to appropriate banners is a special noise-making device that will require two men to operate. Donora is also in line, both in enthusiasm and with a large delegation which will also have some conspicuous features in the parade. The Washington delegation, headed by Judge J. F. Taylor, who is to present Mr. Tener's name to the convention, will form a conspicuous department in the Tener demonstration with special features emphasizing the candidacy of the Charleroi man.

As previously stated, the special train of Pullmans will come from Pittsburg to Charleroi, where the start will be made. All who join the excursion from above Charleroi will have to be here before 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. The train will leave here at 8:10, stopping at Donora and Mononaghela for the delegations there and on arriving at Pittsburg will be joined by the special cars from Washington and elsewhere from the district. The start will be made from Pittsburg at 10 o'clock sharp, arriving at Harrisburg a 4:30 in the afternoon, with a stop of 30 minutes en route at Altoona for dinner.

Mr. Tener has reserved the entire second floor of the Russ Hotel at Harrisburg for headquarters. He has also secured rooms in the Lochiel Hotel, and will have ample room to meet and greet his friends from all parts of the State. Assurances are being wired in today from various counties in different parts of the State pledging support for Mr. Tener.

Every one in Charleroi and along the whole valley is enthusiastic for Mr. Tener, and his nomination for Governor will be the singal of one of the biggest demonstrations this section has ever witnessed.

Children's Day Observed In Local Churches Sunday

Children's Day services were held in the Methodist, the Christ Lutheran the French Presbyterian and the Christian churches last evening and all the churches were crowded. At the Christian church an excellent program was rendered under the direction of Dale Jolliffe, Miss Jessie Shannon and Miss Muriel Scott, consisting of the usual Children's Day program, the title being "The Crowning Glory of the New Century." Features were the patriotic flag drill by a class of girls, and a representation of the work in the foreign fields by class of young men

Among the newspaper men here in search of Tener stuff yesterday was Lem Day of the Washintgon Observer andReporter staff, who also represents the Philadelphia Inquirer. Mr. Day was commissoned by that paper to write up a two column story of Mr. Tener and to procure pictures of the latter, his family and his residence. Mr. Day says he considers this commission as decidedly significent, as the Phildelphia Inquirer is the closest to the State organization of any paper in the State which makes it appear that Mr. Tener is decidedly in the lead.

River Raises to Height of 26 Feet 7 Inches Last Night

CLOUDBURST IS REPORTED

160 Head of Horses Supposed to Have Been Drowned Up River

While as far as can be learned Chareroi suffered slightly from the storm of Saturday night, but all around here are to be seen scenes of devastation. The only noticeable effect of the storm and of the reported cloudburst in the neighborhood of the Cheat river, is the high water of the Monongahela, which is now falling, however, at the rate of 2 inches or more an hour.

The highest the river attained was 26 feet and seven inches about 7 o'clock last night. Possibly the most damage reported to any single individual was in Fayette county. At Ironsburg it is stated that 160 head of horses of J. V. Thompson and other coal and coke contractors were swept into the river and drowned. Some of these dead animals were noticed floating down the river past Charleroi yesterday.

Throughout the three counties there was great havoc wrought by the storm. Daisytown, near California, by the terrible effects of the storm suffered to near the extent of $25,000 damages and it is stated that from houses being swept away and other matters in proportion, the Vesta Coal company will suffer a loss of $10,000. Bridges were carried away and Charles Henry of Coal Centre barely escaped with his life when he tried to ford a crossing, which had hitherto been known as safe. The blunt of the storm seemed to strike the California section, and the roads and farms were terribly damaged. At Marianna a stable belonging to Whitefield and Simmons was washed away and considerable damage was sustained by fire which broke out in the Benjamin Goldfarb building at that place. Barns on the farms of Lindsay Heatherington and Jacob Duvall, near Bentleyville, were struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

The telephone, electric and street railway companies suffered much, but by exhaustive work on the part of employes were able to maintain fairly good service during the time of the storm. The storm was one of the worst which has swept Western Pennsylvania for years.

Social Tonight.

The Lady Maccabees of the Charleroi Hive will hold a ten-cent social tonight at the home of Mrs. Laura McCoy, 632 Fallowfield avenue. The public is cordially invited. Light refreshments will be served and a good social time provided.

Best pictures ever to be seen at the Star, changed every day. 5 cents. 258t1

Roscoe 20, and 50 after, and there each car will lay over 20 minutes.

While the running time of 1 hour and 45 minutes to Pittsburg on this new schedule has not been reduced, Superintendent E. C. Fitch has announced that it was the expectation of the company that the time would be made without difficulty, as the new cars being more powerful than the old ones, are capable of sustaining the time card better than the cars displaced.

Tener for Governor.

Congressman John K. Tener of Charleroi is in the hands of his friends, and his friends propose to nominate him for Governor of Pennsylvania. His name will go before the Republican State convention at Harrisburg Wednesday, and present indications are that no other names will be presented. At this stage it looks as though Charleroi is morally certain to have the Republican candidate for Governor, who will be a triumphant winner at the fall election.

All attempts to arouse serious opposition to the Charleroi candidate have evaporated into thin air. The effort in Allegheny county to create a stampede for Secretary of State Knox resulted in an ignominous failure, for the simple reason that Mr. Knox refused to enter into a fight for the nomination. The latter as Secretary of State, the most exalted position next to President, was too patriotic to resign his position to enter into a political party mixup. There is no occasion for a political Moses to lead the party to victory this fall, as the party was never in better shape nor freer from attack than at the present time. Congressman Tener measures up to every requirement necessary for an Executive of this Commonwealth, and with the party united and harmonious will make a standard bearer that will rally all the hosts to victory.

Munson is Sensible

A wave of impotent rage is sweeping Democratic circles throughout the State over an implied political deal which caused C. LaRue Munson to decline the Democratic nomination for Governor at the State convention at Allentown last week. For doing so Mr. Munson is anathmatized and charged with selling out to his political opponents, and threats are made to read him out of the party. A movement has even been talked of to call another convention and force Mr. Munson or another candidate on the ticket.

While in all probability nothing will be done to change the situation, this tempest in a teapot is somewhat amusing. Mr. Munson, who made a good run last fall as a candidate for Supreme Judge, not on his own merits so much as by reason of a united effort of the legal fraternity of the State against his opponent, was supposed to be the logical Democratic nominee for Governor, but he positively declined the honor. Hence the uproar.

There is no reason for impugning Mr. Munson's motives because he declined to sacrifice himself upon the altar of party devotion. Mr. Munson knows, as does every Democrat in the State who gives the matter any consideration, that he nor any one else whom the Democrats might nominate has a ghost of a show for election. Pennsylvania is an overwhelming Republican State, and with the party united and harmonious, and no scandals or charges of misgovernment on which to base an issue. Democratic chances for success were never more remote. In refusing to stand up just to be knocked down Mr. Munson showed his good sense. It would have only been a useless sacrifice of time and money for him to have accepted the nomination, and under such conditions his personal affairs were his first consideration.

Our First Citizen.

While the return of former President Roosevelt from his tour around the world is likened unto the return of Napoleon from Elba, there is not the slightest semblance of conditions in a political or social way. As a matter of civic pride we can easily consider Theodore Roosevelt our first citizen, and as a former beloved and exteemed Executive can give him a full meed of veneration, yet his return will not precipitate a crisis, nor will it rescue the country from one, because there is no crisis pending that will not solve itself in the ordinary cause of events.

Morally, perhaps, Col. Roosevelt's presence in his native land will stimulate the civic sentiment that is sweeping like a rising tide over the country, and which will rehabilitate political and social conditions. Col. Roosevelt is simply a patriotic American citizen who has the courage of his convictions and when he was Chief Executive of the land preached and practiced the gospel of a fair deal to every one. His example is contagious, and as a private citizen he can be depended upon to give whatever aid he can to the movement for civic righteousness. There is no copyright upon his attitude, and every citizen can preach and practice the same virtues within his sphere of action. With Col. Roosevelt to voice the sentiment thus created it is destined to sweep everything before it.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Why is it that they always say a fellow gets home early in the morning that he arrived during the "wee sma' hours." Wee hours would be better.

A remarkable succession of family names is afforded in a colored family residing in Elizabeth. This is the family of Z. Gunn. His wife's maiden name was Cannon and her mother's maiden name was Shott. Furthermore Mrs. Gunn had a sister who exchanged her name of Cannon for Pistol when she married, and it is hard to tell how many others there were who had strange warlike names.

The Scottdale school authorities who pay their music teacher $40 a month, and their manual training teacher $1,000 a year, evidently are believers in practical training.

The weather is so varied these days that not even the most chronic kicker has time to get in a good knock.

A boom has been started to hold an old home week in Brownsville. There is not a town or city in Pennsylvania where such an affair would be more approriate, unless it would be Philadephia, and it has so many things that it has no call to hope for any more.

Training a bunch of kids to do a bunch of stunts for a church entertainment is a worse job than lining up a Democratic slate for important political positions.

Charleroi will soon have an auto patrol. Some one suggests that they put the bastile on wheels also—Brownsville Clipper Mention.

Brownsville's "bastile," consisting of two cages, used to be set on the hill side, but nary a wheel could the borough find for them.

A fool with college education is a combination that is hard to beat.

There's none more glad to see Teddy home than the United States.

An Inspiration.

When a fair young girl with sunny hair, red lips, white teeth and gentle manners is seen earning her living and her mother attending to marketing and meals it can but rouse every spark of decency and chivalry in the young men. Perhaps they think, "But for father or brother my mother and sister might be doing the same for a lot of us fellows, and I'd punch the head of any one who was impolite or disrespectful."

MASON BROTHERS TOO MUCH FOR THE CHRISTIAN TEAM

The Mason Brothers from the Northside, Pittsburg, were on the job Saturday and with "Lefty" McIlveen twirling, put up a great game of ball. The Christians' lineup was somewhat revised by the addition of Billy Kuhn at shortstop and a new battery—Tobin and McGuire, the former heaving a splendid game. Joe Mason and Enery Mason made the only runs that crossed the pan. Enery stole home in the eighth inning in brilliant style, while Mike McGuire was standing back a few paces fixing his mask. All five Mason brothers put up a good article of ball, the sixth member, Dean, being unable to be here for the game. The score:

Pageant of all Nations

Preparations are in full swing at Monessen for one of the biggest Fourth of July display pageants ever held in the valley. An invitation has been issued to 13 different nationalities to participate in this event, and there has been an enthusiastic response on the part of the foreign speaking people. It is the intention to make the pageant educational as well as entertaining, and to this end a number of large floats are being constructed to illustrate various important events in American history, such as the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The foreign speaking people will also illustrate by similar means, the leading events in the histories of their countries for the education and benefit of the American speaking people.

Nothing of the kind has ever been attempted in this region on a scale like this and it is believed that fully 20,000 people from various points along the Monongahela and Youghiogheny valleys will be in attendance for this unique event.

A program of sports has also been arranged, including an international tug of war contest between teams from the different nationalities, and bands will enliven the occasion. The affair will wind up with a big fire works display in the evening.

Our Conscience as a Guide.

We are not without a guide. God has given us a conscience that is to be our guide. The captain of a ship has beside him the faithful compass, his guide. We have to have with us in the voyage of life our conscience as a guide that by it we may reach our harbor, the home God has prepared for us after death.—Rev. Thomas R. McCoy, Roman Catholic, Boston.

Hope That Spurs Us On.

The price of not becoming a Christian is the loss of joy and hope. All life is lived by hope. The business man consoles himself for his present condition with the hope of future activity. We have much to contend with in this life, and it is the hope of resurrection and eternal life that spurs us to our best efforts. It is by that hope that we are able to give our best efforts in this life.—Rev. F. E. Dark, Baptist, Portland, Ore.

Is the Tuberculosis Crusade Losing Ground?

Sanitaria Seemingly Fail to Check the Terrible White Plague. Enormous Sums Spent.

The recent report of the Penna. State Board of Health reveals the startling condition that despite all the efforts being made by advocates of fresh air and egg-and-milk-gorging treatments, the number of new cases has not been noticeably decreased.

This report applies to Sanitarium treatment. It does not take into account the tubercular cases cured by Eckman's Alterative—when the disease was in an advanced as well as early state. The Sanitarium treatment has only benefited temporarily, while Eckman's Alterative has cured.

Write to any sanitarium and ask them to refer you to even five or ten cured cases—not those temporarily benefited; but people who had tuberculosis and are today in perfect health. At the same time write to the Eckman Laboratory, 6th & Market Sts., Phila., and ask them to refer you to Clergymen, Priests, men and women who took Eckman's Alterative and are today well and strong without a trace of tuberculosis—pronounced so by physicians. Some of them took the Alterative 11 years ago when doctors said they would not live 11 weeks.

Could anything be fairer to yourself and those who love you and would do anything to restore you to health? If you are skeptical—investigate us, our medicine, our advertised statements. Write, if you will, to those who have sent in affidavits and testimonials telling how Eckman's Alterative cured them.

Eckman's Alterative is good for all Throat and Lung troubles, and is on sale in Charleroi by W. F. Hennings and other druggists. It can also be obtained at, or procured by, your local druggist. Ask for Booklet of Cured Cases or write for evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Phila., Pa.

FILIAL DUTY.

An Example From the Chinese of a Good Little Boy.

In China the "Book of Filial Duty" has been employed to instruct the young for the last 2,500 years. In it are twenty-four examples for good boys. What these examples are like may be understood from the story of Wu Meng, example No. 20. Wu Meng it seems, was very obedient to his parents. One day at the age of eight he noticed with pain that the mosquitoes annoyed his parents while they were trying to sleep. Presently he hit upon a plan to rescue them.

Says the author of this classic: "The buzzing of the mosquitoes sounds like 'ying ying,' and their united hum is almost equal to thunder. His tired parents are reclining on their bed, their countenances already sunk in slumber. Legions of mosquitoes fiercely attack them, alternately retreating and advancing. The insects disturb the dreaming sleepers, and with annoyance they toss from side to side.

"Wu sees them sucking his parents' blood, which causes his heart to grieve. His flesh, he thinks, can be easily pierced, but that of his parents is hard to penetrate. Lying on the bed, he threw off his clothes, and soon, feeling the pain of their attacks, he cried, 'I have no dread of you, nor have you any reason to fear me!

"'Although I have a fan, I will not use it, nor will I strike you with my hand. I will lie very quiet and let you gorge to the full.'"

Thus did the parents of Wu Meng get a chance to sleep in peace.

Worth Remembering.

To remove blood stains from cloth saturate with kerosene and after standing a little while wash in warm water.

Windows may be kept free from ice and polished by rubbing the glass with a sponge dipped in alcohol.

To remove iron rust from linen apply muriatic acid, rubbing until the stains disappear; then rinse thoroughly. Use a little ammonia in first water to counteract acid.

To Mend Underwear.

To mend knit underwear turn wrong side out and whip together closely all rents and worn places, stretch carefully and add a patch of some old knit goods over the whole whipped portion. Then darn down on right side with darning cotton or woolen yarn. This insures a nice looking and serviceable darn.

THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class mail at Charleroi, June 15, 1900, according to Act of Congress of March 8 1879

VOL. X. NO. 258. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., MONDAY, JUNE 20, 1910. One Cent

INDICATIONS ARE THAT TENER WILL HAVE SLIGHT OPPOSITION FOR GOVERNOR

FIELD IS CLEAR SINCE REFUSAL OF KNOX TO RUN

Charleroi People Enthusiasctic Over Prospects of Trip Tuesday to State Capitol

PROGRAM TO BE FOLLOWED

Charleroi is agog with excitement and enthusiasm today over the prospects of Congressman John K. Tener for the Republican nomination for Governor at the State convention at Harrisburg Wednesday. With the collapse of the Knox boom, which Allegheny county politicians weretrying to engineer, Mr. Tener's hances were correspondingly increased, and now he is practically acknowledged to have a clear field. This is emphasized by the flood of telegrams received from leading newspapers of the State for Tener stuff, and the presene of special correspondents in search of information concerning "the next Governor."

When it became known that Secretary Knox positively refused to become a candidate for the nomination for Governor, the scramble for reservations in the special train of Tener boomers which leaves Charleroi tomorrow became intensified. In order to make the necessary arrangements for chartering the train, the requisition had to be made earl. and for that reason the committee cannot handle all the applications that are now coming in unless more Pullman cars can be secured. Efforts are being made today with the Pennsylvania Railroad company to secure more coaches if possible. Word has been received that increased delegations from Beaver and Lawrence counties want to join the party at Pittsburg, and efforts are being made to take care of them.

Arrangements have been completed for a big Tener demonstration at Harrisburg headed by the Washington county boomers. Bands, banners, badges, pennants, and red fire will be in evidence together with the Charleroi energy and enthusiasm that accomplishes everything it goes after. The large portrait of John K. Tener which has graced the walls of the Elks' club house in Charleroi has been transformed into a banner, and will be borne in the procession from a carriage drawn by white horses. Handsome badges have been prepared at Washington, D. C., which will be sent by special messenger to Altoona, where they will be delivered to the delegation. The Pullman cars will be decorated on the sides by 50 foot banners, bearing the inscription, "For Governor, John K. Tener," which will flash the candidacy of the Charleroi man all along the route. Large portraits of Mr. Tener will also be displayed at all the car windows.

Monongahela is equally enthused with Charleroi. The large delegation which will attend from that town will have some special features in the parade. In addition to appropriate banners is a special noise-making device that will require two men to operate. Donora is also in line, both in enthusiasm and with a large delegation which will also have some conspicuous features in the parade. The Washington delegation, headed by Judge J. F. Taylor, who is to present Mr. Tener's name to the convention, will form a conspicuous department in the Tener demonstration with special features emphasizing the candidacy of the Charlerci man.

As previously stated, the special train of Pullmans will come from Pittsburg to Charleroi, where the start will be made. All who join the excursion from above Charleroi will have to be here before 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. The train will leave here at 8:10, stopping at Donora and Mononaghela for the delegations there and on arriving at Pittsburg will be joined by the special cars from Washington and elsewhere from the district. The start will be made from Pittsburg at 10 o'clock sharp, arriving at Harrisburg a 4:30 in the afternoon, with a stop of 30 minutes en route at Altoona for dinner.

Mr. Tener has reserved the entire second floor of the Russ Hotel at Harrisburg for headquarters. He has also secured rooms in the Locust Hotel, and will have ample room to meet and greet his friends from all parts of the State. Assurances are being wired in today from various counties in different parts of the State pledging support for Mr. Tener.

Every one in Charleroi and along the whole valley is enthusiastic for Mr. Tener, and his nomination for Governor will be the singal of one of the biggest demonstrations this section has ever witnessed.

Children's Day Observed In Local Churches Sunday

Children's Day services were held in the Methodist, the Christ Lutheran the French Presbyterian and the Christian churches last evening and all the churches were crowded. At the Methodist church the program consisting of special music, recitations and drills by the children and antnems by the choir, was rendered under the direction of the superintendent of the school, W. S. James. The children were drilled by Mrs. Clarence Welsh and Misses Mildred Lowstutter, May Barth and Mary Glunt.

At the Christian church an excellent program was rendered under the direction of Dale Jolliffe, Miss Jessie Shannon and Miss Muriel Scott, consisting of the usual Children's Day program, the title being "The Crowning Glory of the New Century." Features were the patriotic flag drill by a class of girls, and a representation of the work in the foreign fields by class of young men

At Christ Lutheran church the Childrens' Day program was rendered under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Frontz, and Mrs D. F. Worthintgon and was especially interesting and instructive. It consisted of class drills, recitations by the children and special musical numbers.

At the French Presbyterian church a program of much merit was rendered consisting of recitations and various numbers by the children, under the direction of the pastor, Rev. J. E. Charles and the Sunday school superintendent, Martal Paseman.

Aged Banker Passes Away Early This Morning at Belle Vernon

William Jones Active in Business Until Shortly Before His Death---Connected With Several Firms

William Jones, 81 years old, and one of the best known residents of the Monongahela valley, died at 1 o'clock this morning at his home in Belle Vernon, after an illness of a few weeks of complaints of old age. He is survived by his wife, who is 80 years old, one son, Samuel Jones, and one daughter, Mrs. E L. Speers, both of Belle Vernon. The funeral will be held Wednesday from the Methodist church. Interment, which will be private will be in Belle Vernon cemetery. The deceased was born in Rostraver township and on his mother's side descended from the Fells, one of the most noted families of Western Pennsylvania in Colonial times.

His father was Samuel Jones, who was a native of this section, and connected with the Alexanders, descendants of the family who conduct the Alexander Bros. bank at Monongahela.

Mr. Jones leaves a comfortable competance, having been very active in business life, even until a short time before his last illness. He was vice president of the Valley Savings and Trust company at Belle Vernon and a stockholder in the Monessen Savings and Trust company, and he and his son composed the Monessen Lumber company, and owned the greater part of the Belle Vernon Planing mill company.

He was a member of the Belle Vernon Methodist Episcopal church, and for some time was an official of the controlling board. When the new church was erected by that organization he furnished about one-third the funds for its construction.

Among the newspaper men here in search of Tener stuff yesterday was Lem Day of the Washintgon Observer [illegible], who also represents the Philadelphia Inquirer. Mr. Day was commissoned by that paper to write up a two column story of Mr. Tener and to procure pictures of the latter, his family and his residence. Mr. Day says he considers this commission as decidedly significent, as the Phildelphia Inquirer is the closest to the State organization of any paper in the State which makes it appear that Mr. Tener is decidedly in the lead.

River Raises to Height of 26 Feet 7 Inches Last Night

CLOUDBURST IS REPORTED

160 Head of Horses Supposed to Have Been Drowned Up River

While as far as can be learned Chareroi suffered slightly from the storm of Saturday night, but all around here are to be seen scenes of devastation. The only noticeable effect of the storm and of the reported cloud burst in the neighborhood of the Cheat river, is the high water of the Monongahela, which is now falling, however, at the rate of 2 inches or more an hour.

The highest the river attained was 26 feet and seven inches about 7 o'clock last night. Possibly the most damage reported to any single individual was in Fayette county. At Ironsburg it is stated that 160 head of horses of J. V. Thompson and other coal and coke contractors were swept into the river and drowned. Some of these dead animals were noticed floating down the river past Charleroi yesterday.

Throughout the three counties there was great havoc wrought by the storm. Daisytown, near California, by the terrible effects of the storm suffered to near the extent of $25,000 damages and it is stated that from houses being swept away and other matters in proportion, the Vesta Coal company will suffer a loss of $10,000 Bridges were carried away and Charles Henry of Coal Centre barely escaped with his life when he tried to ford a crossing, which had hitherto been known as safe. The brunt of the storm seemed to strike the California section, and the roads and farms were terribly damaged. At Marianna a stable belonging to Whitefield and Simmons was washed away and considerable damage was sustained by fire which broke out in the Benjamin Goldfarb building at that place. Barns on the farms of Lindsay Heatherington and Jacob Duvall, near Bentleyville, were struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

The telephone, electric and street railway companies suffered much, but the exhaustive work on the part of employes were able to maintain fairly good service during the time of the storm. The storm was one of the worst which has swept Western Pennsylvania for years.

Social Tonight.

The Lady Maccabees of the Charleroi Hive will hold a ten-cent social tonight at the home of Mrs. Laura McCoy, 632 Fallowfield avenue. The public is cordially invited. Light refreshments will be served and a good social time provided.

Best pictures ever to be seen at the Star, changed every day. 5 cents. 258tl

Roscoe 20, and 50 after, and there each car will lay over 20 minutes.

While the running time of 1 hour and 45 minutes to Pittsburg on this new schedul has not been reduced, Superintendent E. C. Fitch has announced that it was the expectation of the company that the time would be made without difficulty, as the new cars being more powerful than the old ones, are capable of sustaining the time card better than the cars displaced.

Tener for Governor.

Congressman John K. Tener of Charleroi is in the hands of his friends, and his friends propose to nominate him for Governor of Pennsylvania. His name will go before the Republican State convention at Harrisburg Wednesday, and present indications are that no other names will be presented. At this stage it looks as though Charleroi is morally certain to have the Republican candidate for Governor, who will be a triumphant winner at the fall election.

All attempts to arouse serious opposition to the Charleroi candidate have evaporated into thin air. The effort in Allegheny county to create a stampede for Secretary of State Knox resulted in an ignominous failure, for the simple reason that Mr. Knox refused to enter into a fight for the nomination. The latter as Secretary of State, the most exalted position next to President, was too patriotic to resign his position to enter into a political party mixup. There is no occasion for a political Moses to lead the party to victory this fall, as the party was never in better shape nor freer from attack than at the present time. Congressman Tener measures up to every requirement necessary for an Executive of this Commonwealth, and with the party united and harmonious will make a standard bearer that will rally all the hosts to victory.

Munson is Sensible

A wave of impotent rage is sweeping Democratic circles throughout the State over an implied political deal which caused C. LaRue Munson to decline the Democratic nomination for Governor at the State convention at Allentown last week. For doing so Mr. Munson is anathmatized and charged with selling out to his political opponents, and threats are made to read him out of the party. A movement has even been talked of to call another convention and force Mr. Munson or another candidate on the ticket.

While in all probability nothing will be done to change the situation, this tempest in a teapot is somewhat amusing. Mr. Munson, who made a good run last fall as a candidate for Supreme Judge, not on his own merits so much as by reason of a united effort of the legal fraternity of the State against his opponent, was supposed to be the logical Democratic nominee for Governor, but he positively declined the honor. Hence the uproar.

There is no reason for impugning Mr. Munson's motives because he declined to sacrifice himself upon the altar of party devotion. Mr. Munson knows, as does every Democrat in the State who gives the matter any consideration, that he nor any one else whom the Democrats might nominate has a ghost of a show for election. Pennsylvania is an overwhelming Republican State, and with the party united and harmonious, and no scandals or charges of misgovernment on which to base an issue, Democratic chances for success were never more remote. In refusing to stand up just to be knocked down Mr. Munson showed his good sense. It would have only been a useless sacrifice of time and money for him to have accepted the nomination, and under such conditions his personal affairs were his first consideration.

Our First Citizen.

While the return of former President Roosevelt from his tour around the world is likened unto the return of Napoleon from Elba, there is not the slightest semblance of conditions in a political or social way. As a matter of civic pride we can easily consider Theodore Roosevelt our first citizen, and as a former beloved and exteemed Executive can give him a full meed of veneration, yet his return will not precipitate a crisis, nor will it rescue the country from one, because there is no crisis pending that will not solve itself in the ordinary cause of events.

Morally, perhaps, Col. Roosevelt's presence in his native land will stimulate the civic sentiment that is sweeping like a rising tide over the country, and which will rehabilitate political and social conditions. Col. Roosevelt is simply a patriotic American citizen who has the courage of his convictions and when he was Chief Executive of the land preached and practiced the gospel of a fair deal to every one. His example is contagious, and as a private citizen he can be depended upon to give whatever aid he can to the movement for civic righteousness. There is no copyright upon his attitude, and every citizen can preach and practice the same virtues within his sphere of action. With Col. Roosevelt to voice the sentiment thus created it is destined to sweep everything before it.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Why is it that they always say a fellow gets home early in the morning that he arrived during the "wee sma' hours." Wee hours would be better.

A remarkable succession of family names is afforded in a colored family residing in Elizabeth. This is the family of Z. Gunn. His wife's maiden name was Cannon and her mother's maiden name was Shott. Furthermore Mrs. Gunn had a sister who exchanged her name of Cannon for Pistol when she married, and it is hard to tell how many others there were who had strange warlike names.

The Scottdale school authorities who pay their music teacher $40 a month, and their manual training teacher $1,000 a year, evidently are believers in practical training.

The weather is so varied these days that not even the most chronic kicker has time to get in a good knock.

A boom has been started to hold an old home week in Brownsville. There is not a town or city in Pennsylvania where such an affair would be more approriate, unless it would be Philadephia, and it has so many things that it has no call to hope for any more.

Training a bunch of kids to do a bunch of stunts for a church entertainment is a worse job than lining up a Democratic slate for important political positions.

Charleroi will soon have an auto patrol. Some one suggests that they put the bastile on wheels also—Brownsville Clipper Montior.

Brownsville's "bastile," consisting of two cages, used to be set on the hill side, but nary a wheel could the borough find for them.

A fool with college education is a combination that is hard to beat.

There's none more glad to see Teddy home than the United States.

An Inspiration.

When a fair young girl with sunny hair, red lips, white teeth and gentle manners is seen earning her living and her mother attending to marketing and meals it can but rouse every spark of decency and chivalry in the young men. Perhaps they think, "But for father or brother my mother and sister might be doing the same for a lot of us fellows, and I'd punch the head of any one who was impolite or disrespectful."

MASON BROTHERS TOO MUCH FOR THE CHRISTIAN TEAM

The Mason Brothers from the Northside, Pittsburg, were on the job Saturday and with "Lefty" McIlveen twirling, put up a great game of ball. The Christians' lineup was somewhat revised by the addition of Billy Kuhn at shortstop and a new battery—Tobin and McGuire, the former heaving a splendid game. Joe Mason and Enery Mason made the only runs that crossed the pan. Enery stole home in the eighth inning in brilliant style, while Mike McGuire was standing back a few paces fixing his mask. All five Mason brothers put up a good article of ball, the sixth member, Dean, being unable to be here for the game. The score:

Pageant of all Nations

Preparations are in full swing at Monessen for one of the biggest Fourth of July display pageants ever held in the valley. An invitation has been issued to 18 different nationalities to participate in this event, and there has been an enthusiastic response on the part of the foreign speaking people. It is the intention to make the pageant educational as well as entertaining, and to this end a number of large floats are being constructed to illustrate various important events in American history, such as the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The foreign speaking people will also illustrate by similar means, the leading events in the histories of their countries for the education and benefit of the American speaking people.

Nothing of the kind has ever been attempted in this region on a scale like this and it is believed that fully 20,000 people from various points along the Monongahela and Youghiogheny valleys will be in attendance for this unique event.

A program of sports has also been arranged, including an international tug of war contest between teams from the different nationalities, and bands will enliven the occasion. The affair will wind up with a big fire works display in the evening.

Our Conscience as a Guide.

We are not without a guide. God has given us a conscience that is to be our guide. The captain of a ship has beside him the faithful compass, his guide. We have to have with us in the voyage of life our conscience as a guide that by it we may reach our harbor, the home God has prepared for us after death.—Rev. Thomas R. McCoy, Roman Catholic, Boston.

Hope That Spurs Us On.

The price of not becoming a Christian is the loss of joy and hope. All life is lived by hope. The business man consoles himself for his present condition with the hope of future activity. We have much to contend with in this life, and it is the hope of resurrection and eternal life that spurs us to our best efforts. It is by that hope that we are able to give our best efforts in this life.—Rev. F. E. Dark, Baptist, Portland, Ore.

Is the Tuberculosis Crusade Losing Ground?

Sanitaria Seemingly Fail to Check the Terrible White Plague. Enormous Sums Spent.

The recent report of the Penna. State Board of Health reveals the startling condition that despite all the efforts being made by advocates of fresh air and egg-and-milk-gorging treatments, the number of new cases has not been noticeably decreased.

This report applies to Sanitarium treatment. It does not take into account the tubercular cases cured by Eckman's Alterative—when the disease was in an advanced as well as early state. The Sanitarium treatment has only benefited temporarily, while Eckman's Alterative has cured.

Write to any sanitarium and ask them to refer you to even five or ten cured cases—not those temporarily benefited; but people who had tuberculosis and are today in perfect health. At the same time write to the Eckman Laboratory, 6th & Market Sts., Phila., and ask them to refer you to Clergymen, Priests, men and women who took Eckman's Alterative and are today well and strong without a trace of tuberculosis—pronounced so by physicians. Some of them took the Alterative 11 years ago when doctors said they would not live 11 weeks.

Could anything be fairer to yourself and those who love you and would do anything to restore you to health? If you are skeptical—investigate us, our medicine, our advertised statements. Write, if you will, to those who have sent in affidavits and testimonials telling how Eckman's Alterative cured them.

Eckman's Alterative is good for all Throat and Lung troubles, and is on sale in Charleroi by W. F. Hennings and other druggists. It can also be obtained at, or procured by, your local druggist. Ask for Booklet of Cured Cases or write for evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Phila., Pa.

FILIAL DUTY.

An Example From the Chinese of a Good Little Boy.

In China the "Book of Filial Duty" has been employed to instruct the young for the last 2,500 years. In it are twenty-four examples for good boys. What these examples are like may be understood from the story of Wu Meng, example No. 23. Wu Meng it seems, was very obedient to his parents. One day at the age of eight he noticed with join that the mosquitoes annoyed his parents while they were trying to sleep. Presently he hit upon a plan to rescue them.

Says the author of this classic: "The buzzing of the mosquitoes sounds like 'ying ying,' and their united hum is almost equal to thunder. His tired parents are reclining on their bed, their countenances already sunk in slumber. Legions of mosquitoes fiercely attack them, alternately retreating and advancing. The insects disturb the dreaming sleepers, and with annoyance they toss from side to side.

"Wu sees them sucking his parents' blood, which causes his heart to grieve. His flesh, he thinks, can be easily pierced, but that of his parents is hard to penetrate. Lying on the bed, he threw off his clothes, and soon, feeling the pain of their attacks, he cried, 'I have no dread of you, nor have you any reason to fear me!

"'Although I have a fan, I will not use it, nor will I strike you with my hand. I will lie very quiet and let you gorge to the full.'"

Thus did the parents of Wu Meng get a chance to sleep in peace.

Worth Remembering.

To remove blood stains from cloth saturate with kerosene and after standing a little while wash in warm water.

Windows may be kept free from ice and polished by rubbing the glass with a sponge dipped in alcohol.

To remove iron rust from linen apply muriatic acid, rubbing until the stains disappear; then rinse thoroughly. Use a little ammonia in first water to counteract acid.

To Mend Underwear.

To mend knit underwear turn wrong side out and whip together closely all rents and worn places, stretch carefully and add a patch of some old knit goods over the whole whipped portion. Then darn down on right side with darning cotton or woolen yarn. This insures a nice looking and serviceable darn.
